Two teachers from St Bernadette's are presently attending the 2015 New Zealand Catholic Education Convention in Wellington. The convention brings together Catholic educators, bishops, priests, school trustees and a range of others associated with the New Zealand Catholic education system. 238 Catholic schools, early childhood services and tertiary institutions will have the opportunity to share experiences and learn from one another. The three day event concludes today. Anne-Marie Eathorne and Roger Bone are representing St Bernadette's at the conference which has the theme of Horizons of Hope. Anne-Marie and Roger will share some of their reflections in next week's newsletter.

It appears that Mr Bone has bumped into at least one famous person at the conference if this selfie is anything to go by.

Rippa Rugby Champs date change

A couple of weeks ago we wrote about the St Bernadette's Rippa Rugby teams qualifying for the Otago Rippa Finals being held at the Dunedin Stadium next week. We have now been advised that the date has been changed and the event will now be held on Thursday the 2nd of July, which is the second last day of the term. Notices will go home to children concerned next week.

Otago Spelling Championships

The St Bernadette's team to participate in the Otago Daily Times 2015 spelling quiz was named today. We congratulate the following three children who were selected. In order to make the team they performed really well in a simulated class spelling competition based on this annual ODT event. The quiz will be held next Wednesday afternoon from 4.15 till 6pm.

Just in case you are wondering what kind of questions are involved here is a sample of the questions from the questions we asked the children trying out for the team. How would you have gone? Would you have made the team.

Prayer Assembly for Sacrament of Reconciliation

Today's prayer assembly was all about the Sacrament of Reconciliation. This was because on Tuesday evening many of the Room 4 children and some of the senior children will receive the sacrament for the very first time. The children explained that reconciliation is all about forgiveness. It is about the importance of being truly sorry when we may have done wrong and it is also about forgiving others when they hurt us. The children explained that when we hurt others or we are unkind we can put things right again if we are really sorry. When we break our relationship with our family and friends we also hurt our relationship with God. We would like to thank all of the adults who have helped to prepare the children for this special event, our parents, our teachers, Father Gerard and Sani. We ask you all to keep these children in your prayers for Tuesday. The service is on Tuesday at St Bernadette's Church.

Impressive work ethic benefits St Bernadette's children

Newspapers and television are always ready to headline the irresponsible behaviour of some university students, particularly in Dunedin. It's a shame that the students' reputation is not balanced with the evidence of professional ethic and commitment shown by the College of Education trainees present in our school and in other schools in Dunedin.

At St Bernadette's we are fortunate to have five third year students working with us this year. This week they all completed a three week practicum where they undertook a two week period of full classroom control. Such a task is not just about the demands of total and constant responsibility of twenty plus individuals for a six hour period, there is always the paperwork. With classroom programmes comes the inevitable unit plans for each curriculum area, weekly plans, daily diaries, individual lesson plans, recorded observations, lesson evaluations, daily timetables, assessments. All of this, on top of other university requirements. In fact, three of these trainees had a university exam this Wednesday evening. For the record the particular exam paper was on Biblical Studies. But with the exam over it was all attention was back on St Bernadette.

Week 8
Term 2

Next term Samantha, Michalla, Patrick, Nicole and Lucie will work in their St Bernadette's classes each Tuesday. In August they will have their final placement of 5 weeks, which will include a three week period of control before graduation. We wish these young people an enjoyable and well earned break.
